

BUS TRAVEL TO EQUALITY FORUM 2005 & NATIONAL CELEBRATION

Buses should load and unload at Independence Transportation Center and Additional Dropoff Sites below. Park at Motor Coach Parking Facility. Parking and idling regulations are strictly enforced.

Independence Transportation Center (ITC)

Fifth Street between Arch and Race, behind National Constitution Center

- 11 spots for loading/unloading
- 3 spots for loading/unloading around the corner on Race Street
- Adjacent to the National Constitution Center

Directions: Approach the ITC from Race Street between Fifth and Sixth. Turn right just before Fifth. After unloading, U-turn to the left onto Fifth and merge right immediately to take the underpass. Continue to the coach parking facility using the directions below.

Additional Dropoff Sites in the Historic District

1. East side of Third Street between Walnut and Chestnut
2. In front of Christ Church on Second Street between Arch and Market
3. In front of Betsy Ross House on Arch Street between Second and Third
4. In front of City Tavern just North of Second and Walnut
5. Fifth Street between Ranstead and Chestnut (seniors/handicapped only).

Motor Coach Parking Facility

Callowhill Street between Front and Second

9am - 5pm Mon. through Thurs.

9am - 11pm Fri. and Sat.

$20 per coach per day (payable at the ITC or the parking facility)

$10 additional for overnight parking

- 40 secured spaces
- Air-conditioned area for drivers with showers, TV, sleeping lounges and vending
- In/out privileges – parking permit must be displayed
- Reservations for evening and overnight parking: 215-925-3706

Directions: Heading north on Fifth from the ITC, take the underpass. Continue past Callowhill on Fifth and turn right on Spring Garden Street. Turn right on Second. Turn left on Callowhill. Make an immediate right into the parking facility, up a steep driveway.

Compiled from: http://www.pcvb.org/pressroom/view_kit.asp?ID=90
<http://www.independencevisitorcenter.com/grouptours.htm>